Eugenia,

We will try our best to meet the deadline of Monday, September 19 for submitting a final version of the QAPP. Based on a quick review of the back check comments, it seems the revisions needed are minimal but I have not had a chance to confirm my team's availability. I will get back to you if we need more time, regardless we are still targeting October 17 as the sampling start date.

Thanks,

Carlie

Carlie/Cliff,

See attached EPA's team back check of the revised Phase III QAPP mod and responses to comments. Note that we have some minor comments on your responses to comments 2, 13, 18, 24. Please submit a final version of the QAPP no later than Monday

September 19, for EPA approval.
